GUIDELINES FOR CURATORIAL PROPOSALS

Pelham Art Center welcomes proposals from curators who wish to curate group exhibition programs of artworks including painting, drawing, ceramics, sculpture, print making, fiber arts, film, video and sound art, photography, installation art and contemporary crafts. Group exhibitions usually feature between eight and 12 artists who fall under a thematic umbrella that is conceptually relevant.

Pelham Art Center hosts six or seven art exhibitions each year by local, national and international artists. The gallery program features free admission and public openings with All-Age Art Activities, and ArtTalk lectures. Exhibitions are planned through the collaborative efforts of independent curators, Pelham Art Center staff, and the 10-member volunteer Gallery Advisory Committee.

We encourage potential applicants not familiar with Pelham Art Center's exhibition program or our physical venue to visit the Art Center for a tour to better envision the gallery's capacity.

WHAT PELHAM ART CENTER PROVIDES:

Pelham Art Center will host selected exhibitions for period of seven weeks, coordinate with curator and artists receipt of shipped artworks and artist texts, promote the exhibition, install/de-install, document, present and archive exhibition on Pelham Art Center's website, coordinate with curator educational programming, and provide honorarium to guest lecturers in connection with our public programs when and where funding permits. Pelham Art Center does not pay for shipping of artwork.

WHAT TO INCLUDE IN YOUR PROPOSAL:

Please send a one-page proposal description of exhibition, accompanied with names, contact information, and bios of artists, as well as visual examples of works being considered, and curator's resume. Visuals can be submitted as digital files - jpgs, 300 dpi, 4"x5"- on a CD-ROM.
